

Lowell Community Opioid Outreach Program (CO-OP)

During this COVID-19 public health crisis, the Lowell CO-OP is continuing to work with clients and their loved ones to meet their immediate needs and long-term goals.

In this time of social distancing, the Lowell CO-OP is committed to preventing opioid overdose and helping clients access services.

If the office is closed to the public, arrangements can be made via phone.

Need help accessing treatment, supportive, recovery, or harm reduction resources? Call or Text!
